

Unable to Have Sexual Intercourse?

Please Share Your Story

Take part in a research study on the experience of individuals in heterosexual relationships, who are unable to have sexual intercourse despite a desire to do so.

Participants must be:

- ✧ In a heterosexual relationship
- ✧ Unable to have sexual intercourse in the current relationship despite a desire to do so (not due to personal or religious values)
- ✧ Have been unable to have intercourse for 6 months or longer
- ✧ Age 18 or older and live in the United States
- ✧ Able to speak English

Study participants take part in an interview to share their experience. Participants will receive a $20 Amazon gift card as reimbursement for their time.
